I mean, we can actually create a mathematical definition for evolution in terms of the evolutionary algorithm and then write code to deal with abstract instances of evolution, which basically equates to mathematical proof that evolution works. All that remains is to show that biological systems replicate in such a way as to satisfy the minimal criteria required for evolution to apply to them, something which has already been adequately shown time and again. At this point, we've pretty much proven that not only can evolution happen, it pretty much must happen since it's basically impossible to prevent it from happening.

Warning - Footprints

*But I'm afraid of the way that I'm feeling
Afraid of this new understanding now
Afraid for the beauty within me,
And that which I hold within my hand*

*And this is the ultimate secret
That many before me have ever known
So capture me while I am weakest
I want to know, I want to know*

Warning - Bridges

*In the darkness I unravel
New truths I have suffered
For so long to embrace,
They will change me from here on
But I can't share it with anyone
I wish you were with me tonight*

Happy Days - Defeated by Life

*Defeated by life, that's what I am
It's something more than just being the loser,
It's looking more at your target, at life
Through a bulletproof glass
Your efforts to break it are all vain
And forever will be.*
