OFFICE OF THE PREMIER

Regarding Grandmaster Dandi Axrimos.

Dearest Axrimos.

I bid you luck and good fortune during your crusade to Athens against the demonic hordes that plague Athens today. From France we bid nothing but undying support for you and your most loyal.

We hear that under your command, more than 3/4ths of your vanguard have gone to Heaven for the sanctum Athens never had. Despite this, your calls for resistance echo throughout the lands, through Byzantine shores.

Go on, then. Ride, defend the Kingdom of God, and we will either carry home your glorious corpse or the cross shining upon victory.

Chief Aviator Gwen Tracer Hepburn "Fate of Existence and the Ommiverse" Ellen Trixie Caitlin Foxworthy Avril Verlene Eveline Celinda Sammy Doris Wt. Oxtan Arielle Lindall Leslie Vitesse Allison: Why would I think that anything that belongs to Rapture is as negative as ever? And- wait... that's not him? Hmm... the signature seems to be indicating something. Hmm, uh-huh. Very well! As for the Paramount himself, yuck, what a cruel twist of Fate, and I certainly would blame myself for that if I did it! Sometimes, people and things just have free will; I'm like the janitor that cleans up your disgusting messes, and here I am, looking at a rather tame educational tool turning a little crazy. I have a feeling that might be what befell Clarissa if we are not careful! The fact that a very tame and gentle robot, could turn against its owners. At least Clarissa genuinely loves people, and as far as I am concerned, she is not Ax-Crazy to murder people. Ahh well, enough about everyone else. For you, I am negative, of course. Try your luck again next time when you are contacting me!

As for the Marshal... hello there, my friend! I believe that this is the first time that we have seen each other, or at least the first time you have called me! Well, hey, I am starting to like you already! You have decent values, and while I am not aligned to them, I will say that I at least respect your opinions on things! And best of all, your attitude makes me want to have a tea time with you, you know? Just a social event between you, and me, and with the other Valentians, if you like. Well, I am positive! It's not always that you meet two people from separate universes with contrasting views. The parallel universe thing is a little flawed - parallel universes, not contrasting universes.

Answers beyond your wildest imagination? Contact your local Deity to talk to the Fate herself. Or give Fate a phone call. She has a phone too, yknow?

Most leaders I have met are very personal and private, they rarely appear on places if its not related with politics, that's why it's nice to know a leader that lives with the people, walks through the streets without being afraid of murderers (that shows that she is loved by her folk) and she even goes to some weird parties!

I don't know too much about her, but I would be pleased to have a talk with her to see if she's as nice and cool as it looks.

AN: Well, yeah it's you 😊

What can I say about a leader that besides being nice with everyone, with my is the opposite? Well actually, I could say many things but this time, I will just say the necessary. I don't like you. I tried to be nice with you, and you showed no niceness with me, so this is the end of my post.

Kisses 😘

But that is what happens you touch stuff that isn't yours to touch. Nevertheless, Klara is proud nationalist and traditionalist protecting her country from foreign threats like WanderTech Industries an example, and upholding the values of her country, quite admirable. I do wish they were bit more extreme as it overall seems quite the bore.

Oh look, the Salt King, how nice to see a joke made real walk amongst us. It makes life far more entertaining to experience. Otherwise, I have heard WanderTech is looking to seize control over their resources but when that will happen is complete unknown to me and I don't much care. Provided if there is something to aide my scientific adventures but that is unlikely at the time being. Overall his leadership is competent enough and hasn't yet died out from dehydration by large consumption of salt.

Rapture City

- In the underwater city, two roles have emerged from the City's ongoing civil war: the City Monitors who defend the peace and the Red Caps who fight against unjust systems. The city's infrastructure is crumbling under its own weight and kinship is snuffed by the paranoia of totalitarianism. Yet the people would be in for a surprise as their virtual overlord have died many years ago as the oppression continues under his name...
- Not an 1-1 exact replica of Bioshock lore and Rapture City. Only the city's atmosphere and setting is maintained.

OFFICE OF THE PREMIER

Regarding Minister for Science & Technology, Damien Blackwell.

A fascinating tale, truly fascinating. A man, born out of the catacombs of the unknown, present only in the Rapture Republic beneath the ocean, magically finds the witches' potion for eternal life? There is but one path to eternal life and I can promise you, this is far from it.

Blackwell is often accredited with many scientific up-bringsings, but science is as dangerous as the opportunities it can provide. The type of dark science Blackwell provides humanity answers the question, "can we?" It does not answer "should we?" Only God can provide the answer to the latter, and the Doctor is as far from it as it could get.

Helen Ceeta Tescelyn Maximovna: It has come to my attention that there is yet another heinous personnel in the hearts of the Rapture Republic. At this point, are we even surprised at this development? I know I am not surprised. Anyway, what do you suppose that we do with him? Nothing for the time being. His outrageous and inhumane experiments notwithstanding, he's all around a bad news to Valentine Z, and perhaps to the people all around them and us. I am granting myself the permission to infiltrate his place and get as much information as possible so that we can not only expose him for their deeds, but to see their weak points in case they try to attack us. Their place is not as impenetrable as it was thought out to be; that was all just a series of PR stunts to show that they are much more powerful than they actually are. I would like to request Valentijn that you grant and allow me to do this mission, for it will save many lives and shorten a war in the far future if they are going for that route any time soon. We ain't blowing them up, but know thy enemy before they strike, I will say.

On the other hand, I will not do anything regarding Mr. Cedric, and his nation. Sure, we have had some bad runnings with one another in the past, but that's what they are: In the past. Well, a little further than in the past. The point is, they are not a threat to us, not because of their military, but simply because we have no mutual or conflicting interest between them and us. I am personally not in with his views and on what he did in the annals of history, but hey, if we are going to spy on people just because they act or think funny, we might as well call ourselves a dictatorship. I am only doing this to TRR because they have history that is way more concerning and might incur a war. NQ, on the other hand? I don't think they want to hurt us, and we certainly won't hurt them back unless they do so! So... end of that. I am neutral on him, but I am not very certain myself. Maybe one day, I will be positive on the guy, give him a bit of a break.

END OF REPORT.

For that fact, I cannot support their government and with all the freedoms that this Valentijn gives his subject, I would not be surprised if they would reject it outright. Queen Jackie is surprising an hands-off monarch when it comes to governing a nation that I can tolerate in this one case. As her society isn't being infected by corruption and decay, it's thriving and marching towards true paradise. So, there isn't much disagreement besides her stance on abortion. Overall my assessment is highly positive.

You know, you are an oddity. I'm curious, it says an amalgamation are you any flesh or just a large storage of memory?

With all the difference you and I may not be so different in a sense of base veivs, but our beliefs are drastically different.

If I knew any better you'd make a great king of Corpses, though you have to of shady works at play. I'm sure the populus would rebel as they have been recently.

I certainly find you amusing for the most part, I definitely look forward to future encounters"-The first king

"Well now. And what are you supposed to be? A unifier, a murderer... a thing that was "once" human, apparently. And now finds itself in the possession of some rather interesting abilities. I would very much like to see the root cause of these... though whether such knowledge is best gleaned through diplomatic discourse or vivisection is something I have yet to establish. Regardless, he spices things up wherever he goes - a far cry above the petty demagogues, pointless warmongers and bone-dry bureaucrats that seem to swarm around this place. I have no clue what his stance towards the progression of the sciences may be, whether he even comprehends such a thing, or whether he possesses any beliefs that could suitably be compared to my own... but I suppose I can safely attach some measure of positive stimulus to my perception of him, based solely on the fact that he diversifies the omniversal political scene in a rather unorthodox manner. Diversity breeds data, and data... well, data is the key to all else."

I mean, I wouldn't call two minutes "last second", and you don't seem to have actually checked until... what, half an hour after posting? Plus, you have a history of foelisting people, so for all I knew you'd just foelisted Low Bloods.
