/skip AN since they do not have a crime listed

eating your national animal

It was not long before the story was relayed to Texas Red.
The swiftness of the boomer was deadly with a big iron on his hip
It was over in a moment and the folks had gathered around, there before them laid the body of the outlaw on the ground. I quote Big Iron because i am a fan of western music.

If it was a honest mistake, or it was to pay a necessity (like food or rent) and legitimately didn't have the funds, not a crime for the first couple of times and would be given assistance. If the person could have easily afford the things, it was for frivalous stuff, and they were a serial check bouncer, heavy fines on top of the costs they owe.

Only a crime in public. Usually interrogation is enough, but if serious enough, can result in a week in federal prison

Not a crime, although most people will assume you're a Taurekareka (untouchable) or a criminal.

It's the politics game.

Singing 'Bohemian Rhapsody' at deafening volumes in public. Asking for a friend.

They'll be fed plain waffles with no syrup, fruits, or add-ons

Drinking Canadian Whiskey on 4th of July, Mexican beer on Canada Day, American rum on Mexican Independence (not 5th of May)

Synopsis: If America developed more like Canada because Ronald Reagan was never elected and Barry Goldwater's politically irrelevant. Cuts to education, infrastructure, law enforcement, the EPA, and attacks on labor unions never occurred. Rockefeller Republicans remained a powerful force even into the 2020s which is why our income inequality's comparable to other Anglosphere countries and we have a healthcare system similar to Singapore.

IRL: Laissez-Faire Capitalism works as well as Communism: It doesn't. If it does, South America and Eastern Europe wouldn't need dictators during the Cold War.

Hardly a crime, we celebrate Canada year-round. Our national day is May 11, and we don't really celebrate it much.

Defenestrating YL?

I rarely leave Forum 7 because I'm too uneducated for NSG and too bad a writer for any of the RP forums. F7 is the one place that accommodates my stupidity. You call my flag British one more time and I'm eating a bassoon.
