Metallica - Overkill

Not as good as original (where's that last intro/outro!) but 5/5 still.

Metallica - Too Late, Too Late

Next off: Kill 'Em All. The first actual thrash metal album.

I don't think I've ever actually listened through this one. Only heard one song from it

Metallica - Hit the Lights

The first full Metallica album I heard. Legendary (for me and for thrash metal in general.)

8.5/10, I think. Nordic folk based off of Nordic runes is good when done well

Have a Nice Life-Guggenheim Wax Museum

Noisy drone shoegaze post-rock post-punk mix or something like that.

The weird part is that doesn't actually feel that far off of what this album is, either. At least from that song. It's like got ambient, drone, and noise mixed in with an industrial feel, the vocals aren't so much punk-ish on this track but briefly listening to others it sounded like that, and it has a shoegaze and post-rock feel to it...

Yeah, I just much prefer songs/albums that aren't smash up of gazillion genres to give it ridiculously long name trying to fit every influence in it. Those songs feel like they don't know what they want to be. But that's just me.

Metallica - Cure
