They're a Belarus-Ukraine union who collectively kicked some Russian arse, and are now a prosperous capitalist country set many years into the future.

One thing I learned is that New Carthage has attempted to take over Tunisia on the pretext of "Restoring Carthage" at least once more before the current war.

The Varangian Guard, or what was left of them, had been mostly docile, reluctantly accepting the new changes in their privileges and power enforced by the Emperor due to their loyalty to its office, but they were unwilling to let go of their faith and belief to Odin.

What haven't I learnt? They're a socialist union between East Asian states, and they're very proud.

Minskiev is Belarus and Ukraine with additional territories of Russia, Poland, Slovakia, Hungary and Moldova. And in the Minskiev world Russia broke apart.

They're a Mediterranean state that manages to implement itself into the history of the region in a quite unobtrusive way. Also, their first king was a time traveler, as he seems to have been parts of debates in 1942, for which he was crowned by the Pope in 1545. \_(ツ)_/

Apparently their primary religion is a rather literal devotion to the nation and by extension the government. There is no way that can go wrong ever.

Minskiev was originally created as a Russian satellite state in 2053 out of the former nations of Ukraine and Belarus. Evidently, however, the new nation did not turn out to be nearly as subservient as their new overlords had hoped. A mere fourteen years after it was established, Minskiev defeated Russia in a war with the help of Europe and the United States, causing Russia to collapse into a multitude of warlord-run splinter states.

They've got a traceable history going back 42,000 14,000 years, which is really quite a very long time for oral histories to be kept alive.
