(Florida [Logger]) Man lives a good life as a lumberjack, however, he has nothing to go back to when on the typically-lengthy vacations. So he keeps working to increase usable wealth upon retirement.

(Florida [Logger]) Man, on retirement, is mistaken for Santa Claus thanks to a big beard that has kept him safe as a transplanted logger. He is hired at a local mini-mall over Christmas.

Man finds a time machine, and uses it. This switches the timeline over to this one:

Again, the HP value given turns out to be an illusion, this time belonging to the entire country of Abkhazia! [Abkhaz-Life] becomes dormant for the time being, given that [Abkhaz-Birth] is still alive.

Show Spoiler

Then, Man hears a random voice. "Is this Man? We're here to save you."

Man: "Who is this?"

"Aila, from Abkhaz Birth. We need you to leave this area ASAP."

Man then exits [Abkhaz Birth]'s chamber, while Aila and others move it into Miku's shuttle. They depart a few minutes later, and set the chamber to mind-control the Colossus. From 100 km above the surface, they then send the Colossus over to Aq̄a. On its way, it curb stomps [Abkhaz user] once again, and [Abkhaz user] respawns in Soći once more.

Once everyone is safely away from the ruins of the warehouse, Miku, fueled by rage and vengeance, does the unthinkable: on her 500th birthday, she pilots her 5th shuttle out of the atmosphere, slingshots around the moon, and kamikazes into the ruins of the warehouse at Mach 229. [Abkhaz-Birth] is gone for good, but so is Miku. The last song ever heard from her was the entirety of Wrong Path within half a second!

Show Spoiler

RIP Hacune Miku: 1991-2491. She shall be remembered fondly, along with her husband Man 1, for all eternity within Abkhaz Birth.

Then, [Abkhaz-Life] arises again, with greater power than before due to the death of [Abkhaz-Birth]. However, the Colossus is on its way to fight [Abkhaz-Life] now.
