Monkey 1848 died from making very stupid life choices.

EDIT:

Monkey 1896 invoked Chthulu to correct the timeline. The ritual involved his death.

Learn to fucking count, people, and look at the previous posts before you make yours. And for the sake of whatever deity or non-deity you believe in, if you get ninja'd, FIX YOUR POST.

Count the non-skips from that post to the last post I made before it, mate. Every time I post in this thread, I count the monkeys since my last post precisely because people tend to not bother checking and just mindlessly go with whatever was before them, or whatever was on the last page they read, or just post wrong numbers to fuck with everyone.

Monley 1895 tried reviving Monkey 1896 by invoking Cthulu, Monkey didn't read the warning however as the ritual required two deaths, since he didn't kill anything else he and revived Monkey 1896 died.

Monkey 1894 learned the hard way that putting on dollar-store angel wings does not automatically grant one the gift of flight.

Monkey 1890 was a bard in a D&D campaign and tried to seduce a dragon. The dragon was a top. One damage roll and constitution saving throw later, Monkey 1890 was no more. The DM smiled
