Gojira-The Axe

This seems to be the least liked Gojira album. When I first listened to it, I enjoyed it because it was death metal that I wasn't used to, and I was new to the genre in the first place, so I was interested in hearing the sound as much as I could back then.

Now that I'm listening to it again, and paying closer attention (With only a bit of knowledge of their other albums), I can see the problems with it. This song in particular is kinda bland.

I've only listened to 2 Gojira albums, didn't like either. checks scoreboard Yeah, gave them 6.3 (The Way of All Flesh) and 5.0 (L'enfant Sauvage).

Nero is good, I've always wanted to learn how to play it. However, my all time favorite has always been Protectors of the Earth.

Gojira-Liquid Fire

This songs lame...

I actually do think I remember pretty much drowning out 90% of this album before. It seems like one of the other 2 I listened to (Can't remember the name of one...) held my attention more. While the title track on this one got my attention and then I kinda played it as background music or something.

Gojira-The Gift of Guilt

They still got some technicality, but that doesn't automatically equal good...And their technicality seems kinda like lamer versions of what they used to do, anyway.
