But it's not that gene: it's the pair of jeans that all of the mamas wore. It is holey, because the pope wore it.

The Capuchin Polity, furious at the pirate invasion of what they see as their territory in the Asteroid belt, swiftly sends a strike group to the asteroid.

This conflict was an ideal place to test spaceborne ship-to-ship warfare techniques, as capuchin naval officers had been training in simulators for situations exactly like these. Fortunately, the capuchins' arduous preparations had paid off, as they thrashed the inexperienced pirates.

Soon after, a Capuchin marine squad sweeping out the pirate base found an alien artifact which, upon study back on Mars by the Catgirl Republic, turned out to be a gravitic field manipulator. This novel technology could allow for CCA ships to move orders of magnitude faster, and reverse-engineering of the device has begun in earnest.

(By the way, the Maldives, formerly Pirateville, has already been seized by the Capuchin Polity)

The Catgirl Republic sends orders to its autonomous republic the Titan Republic (a moon of Saturn) to begin organizing defensive forces to counter any pirate forces of the Asteroid belt. In other news, Catalonia continues to expand its naval fleet. But recently there have been reports of strange electromagnetic events in Greenland. Is Catalonia building a superweapon?

The pirates, which for some reason realized that they are wanted by pretty much everyone, escape to a nearby asteroid which has an unknown resource that can be used for transportation across the galaxy. The pirates uses it to their advantage and escape to a far away galaxy (it's probably gonna take a bit more time to get there).

Also Bobland colonized Tristan da Cunha and sent their prisoners there to do whatever the heck they want.

The pirates are still looking for catgirls, but so far they haven't been able to find them.

Galaxies move pretty fast from each other so yeah it'll take a good while. Maybe they escape to the Large Magellanic Cloud? Which is a satellite of the Milky Way.

The Catgirl Republic that was on Mars was confused why there was a Catgirl Confederation formed from some of its military battalions in the Asteroid Belt. But they decided to allow them to exist as a buffer state for the CCA to organize frontier missions outside the asteroid belt.

The Capuchin Polity has followed the lead of the Catgirl Republic and recognized the Catgirl Confederation as an independent state, normalizing trade relations with the fledgeling state.

A strong enough trade connection between Sol and Proxima Centauri has enabled the CCA colony there to create a thriving industrial base. Spacecraft are being constructed with remarkable efficiency in the Asteroid Belt in Capuchin factories to fuel the growing demand of capuchin civilians, the Capuchin Space Force, and additional orders from the Catgirl Republic. More colony ships have been sent to other systems nearby such as Gliese and Epsilon Eridani.

The power surge in Greenland has worried the capuchins, so the original capuchin goes on a diplomatic mission to bolster the Capuchin Polity's relations with Catalonia. But as a safeguard, heavy fortifications have been constructed in the major Maldives islands and a 1/2 mile deep bunker has been installed on Guadalcanal.

Bashkortostan expands south, and Tennessee annexes Georgia.

Meanwhile, Montana begins supplying Albanian rebels in Europe.

Hawaii has a mental crisis as its independence was actually given to them with aid from the Catgirls many pages ago. But for some reason, it declared independence a second time.

Apparently Tristan da Cunha isn't a place to put your prisoners on to do whatever they want and suddenly all of the prisoners escape to Liberia. Bobland's leader (Bob Barbs) sincerely apologizes to whoever owns Liberia. Bobland stills owns Tristan da Cunha though.

Basquenlandian spies find out that Catalonia is trying to disrupt the earth's magnetic field, and they shut down the weapon. The Union of the Two Georgias, with its capitals in Tbilisi and Atlanta, declares independence, and in a coup, annexes Tennessee. The Algerbil Alliance recognises the Catgirl Confederation, and the Union of the Two (now three) Georgias buys South Georgia in exchange for Sandwich, Massachusetts and UTG joining the Algerbil Alliance. Sandwich, Massachusetts is fine with this, as they need protection from Fascist Plymouth. Fascist Plymouth retaliates by joining the Asuncion Pact, which now has Paraguay, Laos and Fascist Plymouth. The Catgirl Republic has been invited by the now worried Boblandians to join the Algerbil Alliance. Also in Bobland, Bob the Builder just won the election and is now President of Bobland.

Uh where is the new map?
Also the United Byzantium States retakes rebellious former American land

The island of the Galapagos and the main power of South America controlling the West of South America. Militaristic and authoritarian with a troubled past and an uncertain future with stability at an all time low due to a lost war and unpopular occupiers.

to keep track of like a couple pages of just nonsense. Also some nations have colonies in outer space and one nation isn't even on Earth. It's just nonsense alright?

Bobland's new leader starts by improving infrastructure and try to actually get a foothold on the map. They start with Eastern Brazil which sends a request to whoever owns Eastern Brazil to buy it for $18 million. In the meantime, Bob Saget fans are still mourning the death of Bob Saget, and yes that final sentence was uncalled for.
