Winston's Diary - Eurythmics
Moody (not surprising since it's 1984) and can stand on its own. I like it.

Millstone, Brand New.

we, unlike the bourgeoisie, have nothing to lose and therefore our expression will be the only honest one, our words will be the only challenging ones and our art will be the one revolutionary expression. We need new noise and new voices and new canvases to become something more than the last poets of a useless generation.

Cyrillic Shit, by Nokturnal Mortun.

The album's called the song of steel or something it's pretty neat.

everyone knows that quote, "I know not what weapons World War Three will be fought, but World War Four will be fought with sticks and stones," but in a way it's optimistic and inspiring because it suggests that even after destroying civilization and returning to the stone age we'll still be sufficiently globalized and bellicose to have another world war right then and there
