Pink Floyd - On the Run

I think...kind of hard to tell because it's a vinyl. ☐

YOU'RE NOT A TRUE PINK FLOYD FAN YOU SHOULD KNOW EVERY SINGLE ONE BY NAME JUST BY HEARING THEM AGH WHAT ARE YOU THINKING?!?!?!?!?!?

Sunn O))) and Nurse With Wound-Ash on the Trees (The Sudden Ebb of a Diatribe)

Long, very ominous feeling song that slowly becomes more dark and twisted as it goes.

Though I really am not much of a Pink Floyd fan to be honest...not my style of rock.

Pink Floyd - Money

This is my jam though.

Pink Floyd - Eclipse

Eh, I'll bump it up from a 7 to a 7.8.

Now I'll let Rdio play through the album as I go do other stuff, so I can still get the scrobbles.

That, and it's one of the first songs I learned how to play on bass. ☐

It isn't so impressive really, at least not with me. Before it was just, "well, it's higher than a [insert number and a half here], but lower than the next number, so I'll just go with whatever decimal sounds right to me."

But now it's less random since I've been using my (overly complicated ☐) rating system. When I calculated the track ratings for this album, the number was two points shy from being a solid 8, so I deducted 0.2 from the rating. ☐

And I just go "Eh, 8, or a 8.5, close enough", and then decide where to go with it from there on RYM.

On movies it is kinda weird because I don't seem to do a middle ground, and just go "7 or an 8", with no "7.5". Not sure why.

Movies are so much easier to rate. Basically I just go, from 1-5: hate it, don't like it, like it, really like it, love it. Anything that falls in-between two of them get the half-stars.

Indeed.

Wu-Tang Clan is one of the greatest hip hop groups ever; they're the definition (as well as some others, like Nas) of lyricism.
