I've liked a Gnarl's Barkley album for years. I even feel like listening to it again.

Call of Duty: Black Ops 2-Colossus

I've listened to St. Elsewhere a few times and it's pretty good, but I think it's weighed down by the fact that a few of the tracks (Crazy, Smiley Faces and The Last Time mostly) are way, WAY better than the rest

M83 - Intro

I listened to that album in full a while back and didn't like it nearly as much as I do the 2nd album. It wasn't bad but I definitely prefer their 2nd.

I mean, we can actually create a mathematical definition for evolution in terms of the evolutionary algorithm and then write code to deal with abstract instances of evolution, which basically equates to mathematical proof that evolution works. All that remains is to show that biological systems replicate in such a way as to satisfy the minimal criteria required for evolution to apply to them, something which has already been adequately shown time and again. At this point, we've pretty much proven that not only can evolution happen, it pretty much must happen since it's basically impossible to prevent it from happening.
