hanz zimmer- crisis2 theme

"Not our body and our muscles make us strong. It is our will to survive, to defend our family and the ability to love. Those are the things which make us even stronger than everything else. THIS is strength! No computer, intergalactic race or animal will defeat the zakesh race as long as we have this fires in our hearts burning!"
quote from Zer'kesh the defender.

Aphex Twin - Lichen
It's a... I guess somber song. Brings a lot to mind.

The rumbling of thunder outside from the night time thunder storm that rolled in. We had a chance of thunderstorms today and tonight, so it's not that surprising. It's just like, hanging out over the mountain and not seeming to be getting any closer. But it's flashing a lot for a thunderstorm here.

Brave, Katatonia.

we, unlike the bourgeoisie, have nothing to lose and therefore our expression will be the only honest one, our words will be the only challenging ones and our art will be the one revolutionary expression. We need new noise and new voices and new canvases to become something more than the last poets of a useless generation.

everyone knows that quote, "I know not what weapons World War Three will be fought, but World War Four will be fought with sticks and stones," but in a way it's optimistic and inspiring because it suggests that even after destroying civilization and returning to the stone age we'll still be sufficiently globalized and bellicose to have another world war right then and there
