Released July of 1996 as a Pop Radio single, 311 appeared on my radar with this song, helping me enjoy a summer without fret of another mandatory school year.

311 - "Down"

311, though only just coming into their own while I was in high school (late in my HS career), would go down to define the next stage of my life: US Military years.

A song about the ending of a relationship, this bluesy song was a coffee house staple while we'd sit and debate politics. Released May 19, 1996 as a single (95 on the studio album) this song is still one of my favorites, standing the test of time.

Night, by Bill Callahan. I heard the song on a recent House episode and tracked it down. I rarely care for the music on the show (it's usually sappy or obnoxious) but this was an exception.
