And when they do RP, it's often in an RMB, not a forumthread, meaning that you're limited to doing one RP at a time so as to avoid confusion between participants.

What? RPing on an RMB?

and the ones that to RP tend to be suuuuper elitist about it

"Oh you didn't write a 50,000 word post? lol you're basically a one line poster"

Look man it's a forum game if I wanted to write something that long I'd write a novel and get it published so I can get some money for all that time I spent writing. You can write more than one line and have some reasonably descriptive writing without trying to write your magnum opus.

I haven't, it's an exaggeration. I have seen people who intentionally try to make the longest post possible though.

The cult of length honestly seems to have nearly disappeared in recent years. Most of the current RP regions are more about news articles as RP anyway.

I've seen that sentiment in forumside RPs but never in an RP region. RP regions either have offside forums and RPs and stuff and they're the elitist ones, or they use the RMB and are pretty much entirely composed of one line posters.

I would complain about the meta of a lot of RPs requiring you to make 50,000 word posts, but after writing an introductory OP for an RP I'm planning, currently standing in at 7656 words, I realized that that would probably be hypocritical.

Think this counts as a cliché.

"Edgy" dystopian nations that try extremely hard to be serious, and in certain cases to "try and send a message" (even though that probably never happens), with barren, painfully generic leaders who eventually get memed to all hell.

make sure that they either are a third reich knockoff, a cultist shithole, or a sovietboi, otherwise it isn't the complete cliché

The spam raiders just do not give up. At least this time it's not NSFW spam. They seem to be targeting a specific user and going only into threads they've posted in which just makes them seem like an even bigger no life neckbeard in mom's basement.

A good portion of the forum appears to be convinced I'm the one behind it at this point. Maybe the factbook tagging is just a little too close to my old modus operandi on Discord; I've had more unjustifiable accusations made before.

"Non-Northumbrians" is actually one of my trademark sayings. Off-site, where I used it this morning actually in a DM with someone, never used on-site. I know some of the people related to those accusing me browse this thread; maybe they should be looking closer to home.

I admit I find the Northumbria shtick a little annoying sometimes but I also don't dislike you enough to think you're spamming trollfaces and NSFW specifically in threads you've posted in. Someone is trying to frame you but obviously it's not you because even if theoretically it was and you were using a VPN to hide your IP address the mods would find out sooner or later.

To be completely fair I haven't played HOI4 with all the DLCs. I know they're on sale but the price is still a little steep to get all of them especially when I just bought a premium tank for War Thunder that costs as much as a whole ass game.
