Finishing their Random Access Memories album...I'm officially a fan.

I thought most of it was mediocre. I'd rate the album like a 5. But the songs I DO like I really quite like.

Contact being one of them.

Philip Glass-Metamorphosis Four

Take note I'm going through like...10 albums today WHILE also cleaning...This will probably go terribly.

I'd rate that RAM a solid 7.5 perhaps even an 8, really liked it.

Blue Food - Engine of the World

Really cool and unknown Funk Rock band a stumbled upon, only 69 listeners. Worth checking out guys!

Any song with singing, especially the robotic singing, really bored me and didn't do anything for me at all. I wouldn't say any of it was bad, just boring.

But as mentioned, there are 4 songs I liked quite a bit.

Kronos Quartet-Tashweesh

I liked the whole electronic disco feel, entire album was solid. The feature with Panda Bear was easily my favorite, dayum that song is good.

As far as disco goes, I liked Arcade Fire's approach to that better.

"Are You Gonna Be My Girl"--Jet

I just love this song, it's the perfect melding of a classic rock sound with a modern/garage rock sound, and it's so pumped! ☐

Considering you liked Solstafir, you might like this Corrian. And if you do, then I have many, many more recommendations.

Damn, that first picture is lovely.

I'll give it a listen later. I have the link up on YouTube.

I'm not even posting fast right now. Mostly because of long songs, but also because nobody else is posting right now so it looks like I'm posting more then I really am.

There are times when I barely post in this thread at all.
