Monkey 2375 declared himself King of his small ranch in the middle of nowhere. The US invaded him and blew everything up

Monkey 2373 noticed we were down to 2373 monkeys, despite there only being 4378 comments and was summarily killed by 3249 hyperdimensional monkey ghosts.

Monkey 2369 mentioned it. I don't even have to say it, you already know what I thought about while writing this and the message I am trying to convey.

Monkey 2368 realized that he was spawned in as the monkey before him (Prusmia notwithstanding), and died of an aneurysm in the ensuing existential crisis.

No. You do one monkey, and it's the next one down from the one above. Yours is 2368. OZF's is 2367.

/skip Next monkey is 2366.

Monkey 2364 was already dead. Monkey 2364 died of a heart attack in his home before this thread was even started. Many thought he died after his house was quarantined because of the zombie plague caused by Monkey 9968.
