"Give Your Heart A Break" - Demi Lovato

First Pop song I have heard that I not only can stomach, but actually like (With the exception of "Rocketeer" by Far East Movement) ☐

Eh, I haven't heard any Demi Lovato I've liked. But then again, I have only heard "Skyscraper", which I really don't care for her singing in that. At least, parts of it.

This cover's not that bad, though.

This is my favorite pop music, though.

I'm a big lover of Post-Rock music, because people that do that genre seem to make the most epic rock songs in my opinion. In mellow and upbeat form. And some stuff that'd sound great as a soundtrack, like Mono's new song.

The Ascent of Everest-Return To Us.

If you like the more dramatic, upbeat type of post-rock, you'd probably like this one. At least at the start. I love the intro.

It is. I find it beautiful though. I love some mellow, beautiful, sad music. And I like a lot of various happy music though, just not the mainstream happy music. Usually happy music that's more popular just gets on my nerves.

Saxon Shore-Small Steps.

Pretty much like this song. Sometimes I find the sad songs more peaceful and relaxing, and just beautiful then actually sad. But the emotions they make me feel is...well, beautiful. That's about the only way I can think to put it.
