Either 25 years to life for attempted murder or, if a citizen, death for treason.

Polygyny is not recognised by Mansk society and so any individual engaged in such relationships would be considered to be an adulterer and ostracised from wider society and considered a lesser man.

Blasphemy (against the state/native religion).

Depending on the situation at hand (whether the country is one we're at war with at the time), the degree of defection and its results (whether they disclosed any information, misused their office to the enemy's benefit, etc.) and the importance of the person in said cabinet, it can go from a small fine to a hefty fine to life in prison to execution.

Deserting your post while inside a military camp. Keep in mind, the culprit did not flee, they just abandoned their post temporarily without leave.

The repairs for any victims' cars will be the financial responsibility of the culprit, and they will also have to pay a fee to the private owner of the road, depending on the type of road, as the fee for a highway would be much higher than for a rural road.
