In 2120, Minskiev has the second largest economy in Europe (fourth largest in the world) and is the second largest contributor to the European Space Agency. The city of Kyiv is a startup hub. Minskiev also has several small and medium-sized companies with significant international success, known as "Hidden Champions." Industry still makes up a majority of the economy rather than services.

Being diplomatically active, Hatsunia is one of the world's nations that engages in diplomacy with almost all of the world's other states. It is a founding member of the Mutual East Asian Cooperation Union, an organization with the goal of promoting economic growth amongst East Asian states. It is a subset of the Pacific Rim Organization (PRO), which, as its name may suggest, has members from other pacific-bordering states. The PRO is loosely associated with the European Union.

They have their own version of the Simpsons called "Rose" which started out as a radio drama before becoming televised. Its like exactly like the Simpsons but its the longest running syndication afaik on their TV and does a lot of topical political commentary.

Another is that their leader looks like an unsavory figure (like gangster or mafia vibes).

The two main religions of Feyrissshire are Kyrieism and Ryeifinism. Kyrieism is centered around the worship of Goddess Kyrie, who is said to have made the world along with light and dark fairy goddesses (Ryeifinsein). Ryeifinism was derived from Kyrieism as it gave the fairy goddesses names and representation for various aspects of nature and society.
