Sigur Ros-Andvari

Probably give this one a 8.5. Gonna be generous with these guys, too, because they're the ones who really got me into the post-rock genre and made me truly start digging into music deeper than I already did (Which wasn't a whole lot, really). And they had an important place with me.

Sigur Ros-Inni Mer Syngur Vitleysingur

This whole first half of the album is generally more upbeat than their stuff before 2008, except a couple of songs on their very first album.

Eh most bands tend to get like that as they age, they are trying to keep up with the era.

Not technically. The album after that is their most ambient yet.

Sigur Ros-Godan Daginn

And besides: This song is a mellow acoustic song, and there's a lot of mellow songs on the second half of this album.

Of course, right after that, they do have some of their most heavy, dark stuff yet...

They vary a lot throughout their history. But are generally in the same style of music throughout their existence (Post-rock, mixed with various other things throughout their history)

And this is one reason why I'm going through everything I have on my pc. This song wasn't as good as I remembered. Lowered from 5/5 to 4/5.

The best part of this song is the last...4 1/2 minutes? Though the guitar rhythm always reminds me of Glosoli with a different tune to it.
