If to defraud, site removed and offender given 6 months to 5 years jail-time. If to compete, with a distinctly different name - not a crime. If as a parody site that is clear it is a parody site, not a crime. If unclear, levied a fine and made to clarify that it is a parody site.

(if your nation has elections) Organized voter suppression that throws an election?
(if your nation does not have elections) Organized conspiracy that overthrows beloved leader?

They are put on a watchlist to be monitored for future antisocial behaviors, if they prove to continue said behaviors or worse, then action will be taken (usually resulting in either psychiatric commitment or getting put in a labor camp for a determinate amount of time) otherwise they will be gradually removed from said watchlist.
