To quote an AN, for a country made yesterday (or probably the other day), it's pretty well known.

We stand not for kings and for lords, but against them. We fight not for race and oppression, but to smash them. We struggle to bring freedom back in the hands of the people, on the riverbanks, up in the mountains, and out on the sea.

The point is not to make a perfect world, just a better one - and that is difficult enough.

Very well-known, especially among RP-ers. Islamic Holy Sites is a major player in the RP world, and they get involved in a lot of roleplays there with their alliance.
