Luckily, Ashotu is completely ignored by everyone else on the RP, making all of their posts ineffective. (I agree, we should have a vote to ban them)

In the meantime, the Capuchin Polity continues to expand its reach to nearby star systems, and research begins on new technologies that would allow faster and stronger ships to be created.

One day, a CCA research vessel came across a strange signal on an uninhabited planet in the Gliese system, and goes down to investigate. Many indications point to the broadcast being alien in origin.

The capuchin goes on a visit to the nearby Republic of Slime, and decides to extend a trade agreement to them because they look very cool.

TL;DR; Catalonia is now a mega superpower nation. And in the war against Carolingia, Catalonia deployed EMP weapons obliterating the power grid in Europe and North Africa. The Burrito Republic is backstabbed and nuked by the Catalan leader Lord Veemaa Abelló II. The last burrito President Chimichanga of the Burrito Republic survives the nuking. After fighting Catalonia, he gets yeeted to space where he is saved by a Catgirl. And in a passionate speech, President Chimichanga rallies all of the Martian factions and the Catgirls together to save Earth from the genocidal rampage of Catalonia.

Meanwhile, back on Earth. The war between Catalonia and the Polecat-Lithuanian Union against the Carolingian Empire has proven to be rough and brutal. Catalonia calls for the Burrito Republic in Wyoming to try and get the Greater Dos Empire to aid the efforts against Carolingia. The Burrito Republic, while still semi-neutral in the conflict in Europe, agrees to try and utilize diplomacy to get Greater Dos to join the fight against Carolingia.

The Burrito president Burrito B. Chimichanga sends a team of agents to Greater Dos. Eventually, they come to a special "deal" with the Greater Dos Empire's leadership council. One section of the deal agrees that Andorra and France will be ceded to Greater Dos and they will also have free trade with Catalonia once the war is over.

Greater Dos begins frontline assaults against the Carolingian Empire. But things don't look that good. Dos field armies attempted to break entrenchments made by the Carolingians in Alsace-Lorraine, but the defenses of the Carolingians were very difficult to penetrate. And the numerous pillboxes made engineering work to try and disable the Carolingian bunkers and pillboxes very difficult.

However, this serves in favor of the Catalanian leadership's plan.

Suddenly during a peak point of the war where the Carolingians are on the verge of breaking the stalemate in Alsace-Lorraine. The Catalonians unveil the secret weapons they have been working on. Hundreds upon hundreds of High-power microwave missiles, EMP weapons, Electromagnetic missiles, and E-bombs are fired and deployed across Europe and Northern Africa. Thousands of other missiles are fired as well which drains out the ability for the Carolingians to intercept all the incoming weapons to the numerous amounts of them.

As detonations of the E-bombs obliterate power grids across Europe and Northern Africa. The leader of Catalonia suddenly reveals himself.

His name is Lord Veemaa Abelló II. The son of President Veemaa Börk of the Nordic Union (the first country created in this forum thread). For years he has led the Catalan people in Greenland. And for years he and the Catalans have sought revenge against the countries who wronged them. Lord Veemaa also says that this war is also revenge for the fall of the Nordic Union. He blames the arrogance of the countries of this world due to their greed for conquest and shedding blood, which is what led to the fall of the Nordic Union.

Lord Veemaa Abelló vows to burn down all borders within this world and to hand this world off to the next generation. And he claims that to do that he needed to obliterate the power grid within Europe and North Africa. This was to show the world that all consequences have a price. He then calls for the world to "Tear down all borders and live under free will! Destroy the countries who oppose this thinking! People of the world unite as one! NO BORDERS!"

And in an act of horror, Lord Veemaa has three nukes fired from Greenland. The Burrito Republic suddenly realize the nukes are heading their way; to Wyoming!

Lord Veemaa says finally in the speech, "I'd like to give thanks to our sponsor Raid Shadow Legends for allowing us a chance to nuke a good old ally of mine. The President of the Burrito Republic, President Burrito B. Chimichanga. We thank you for your aid, Burrito. But we no longer require it."

Wyoming is blown up by nukes. Hundreds of burritos and humans living in Wyoming die.

Additional burritos are assassinated by Catalan agents across Europe. Hundreds of native Burrito businesses are destroyed. Thousands of Burritos living abroad are sent to death camps and massacred. Lord Veemaa of Catalonia calls for the "full genocide of the unholy creation of Burritos."

The war suddenly changes for the Carolingians. The entire time they had been distracted fighting Greater Dos, Catalonia had been planning this demonic doctrine. Carolingian forces, having lost contact with command posts in Central Europe, find themselves being invaded all over Europe by Catalan troops. However, new Catalan troops have been deployed, and they have been noted to be super soldiers with cybernetics and a towering height. These super soldiers of Catalonia obliterate entire regiments of the Carolingian military which forces the Carolingians on the defensive.

Carolingian civilians pray for aid to come soon. The war isn't going well as the Catalans advance. Thousands of Carolingians are massacred and slaughtered by them. And sympathetic Carolingians to the Catalan cause are also rebelling as well and causing massive destruction across the Carolingian Empire.

The call for help is heard. And out of the ashes of Wyoming. The last Burrito emerges. The now-former president Burrito B. Chimichanga. Burrito B. Chimichanga has absorbed all of the mystical power of the Burrito people and is now prepared to fight the Catalans, alone, under impossible odds.

As Burrito Chimichanga arrives in Berlin. Utilizing the teleportation abilities of his people. He finds himself surrounded by millions of Catalan soldiers aiming their guns at him. But Chimichanga remains still. He lifts up a burrito wrapped in tin foil and prepares to fight.

The fight is brutal. Chimichanga kills hundreds upon hundreds of Catalan troops but the overwhelming sheer numbers of Catalans overwhelm him. He is driven back towards the Brandenburg Gate where Catalan troops now sit behind him with their guns aimed. Chimichanga's Burrito Electric Shield manages to deflect the incoming bullets, plasma shots, and mortar shells. But when a SAM from Hamburg is fired, the shield breaks, and Chimichanga falls onto the ground.

Lord Veemaa Abelló suddenly appears from behind Chimichanga and laughs. "You stupid little Burrito. Your powers are nothing against mine." And Lord Veemaa suddenly grabs Chimichanga and flings him across space.

One day, Admiral Myri'ah of the Catgirl Republic Space Force (CRSF) is driving her Pelican spacecraft to examine the orbital debris around Earth. But her ship suddenly rams into an object. As she exits the spacecraft with a spacesuit to investigate, she sees a sentient humanoid-looking burrito floating in space. She suddenly realizes that the face of the burrito is the exact face of President Chimichanga of the Burrito Republic.

She flies Chimichanga to the Catgirl Republic on the Martian South Pole. And once she arrives. She is surrounded by military and government officials telling her that Earth is in absolute chaos because of Catalonia and that Chimichanga is now the last of his kind.

Myri'ah is shocked. But she urges the Catgirl Republic's leaders to intervene in the war on Earth to save lives. But they refuse. Saying, "If Hawai'i or the CCA is under direct attack. Then we will intervene."

As Myri'ah urges them once again. Former president Chimichanga suddenly appears in the parliament building of the Catgirl Republic. In one passionate speech about saving lives and having compassion for all life in general. He discusses the millions of people being slaughtered by the Catalans and their tyrannic leader Lord Veemaa. He then tells everyone in the hall, "Catalonia can't be defeated while we are split apart and warring against each other. Catalonia and Lord Veemaa can only be defeated if we all unite together to fight him." And he shows photos of his people slaughtered in concentration and death camps. "If we don't stop Lord Veemaa now. Then he will purge the entire galaxy until he creates his 'world without borders'. We must act now before it is too late."

At the end of that speech. The biggest crossover since Avengers Endgame takes place. Leaders of all of the Martian factions, including the Ra'ki orange dwarf lizard humanoids and the Na'l'xiso round arachnid-looking creatures, all agree to help Chimichanga defeat Lord Veemaa.

Thousands upon thousands of spacecraft begin traversing through space towards Earth. All of the Martian factions, the Catgirl Republic and its subject the Titan Republic, and the Catgirl Confederation have rallied all of their forces to help stop the demonic plan of Catalonia back on Earth. The Catgirls call for additional aid from the Capuchin Polity and Algerbil Alliance to help defeat Catalonia and save the fate of the universe.

The Greater Dos Empire, seeing a new united front against Catalonia, backstab their former ally, horrified at what they have become. Catalan troops begin advancing towards Paris, prepared to burn all of it down.

The world is in chaos. What will happen next?

Back in the lands formerly known as China, Guangdong seizes the cliques of Hong Kong, Macau, Zhanjiang and Hainan and begins an invasion of Guangxi. Within two minutes of the declaration of war being received by Nanning, Guangzhou immediately commands all divisions on the border with Guangxi to invade the nation and cut it off from the coast.

Once Guangxi lost it's coastal border, Guangdong Troops were ordered to move north towards the capital, Nanning reroutes divisions heading for the Guangdong border down to where the invading forces are, however, the capital city fell to Guangdong, and the State of Liangguang is proclaimed
