Their Europe is a very very confusing one. For one thing, there exists Prussia - it also holds Brandenburg, Mecklenburg, Saxony, Silesia, and a bit more of Lithuania than just Memel; which means poor Poland has no access to water, even by abusing Lithuania's miniscule access to the Baltic Sea. Also, Denmark controls much of the habitable parts of Sweden.

The nation was formed due to Anglo-Catalan cooperation during the Crusades. The English crusaders were led by Duke Robert Halloway, and the Catalan crusaders were led by Count Ramon Berenguer IV. After Berenguer died with no children, Halloway seized the throne.

That their existence is predicated on the notion of an alternative strain of a more "nationalistic" communism being spread against the traditional neo-liberal (and possibly nominal Communist) nations already existent in their world.
