Fukuyama's vision of an end to history has finally arrived however belated it might be to his critics. No matter, for his naysayers are long dead and if not dead, certainly dying hanging on street lamps. As a new and prosperous age under the gardeners of Europe begun, legions of mercs and psychos from the European-American War are convened to find, liquidate the remaining vectors of so-called "culture bearers" still clinging to bygone racialism & ideals.
