haveing to listen to this at 28 kHz on reapeat forever

Not only do I feel dumber for trying to verbalize what you try to type, but I'm slowly losing the will to live. I do not want to live in a world where people like you are given the opportunity to work or have a say in anyone's future, let alone reproduce. I'm an atheist but I still pray, not for you, but fore the rest of us. God help us all, except you. I'm fucking surprised you weren't thrown out with the after birth, or aborted at the age of six, when you were finally able to speak, and your parents realize they made a mistake with you. I hope this is getting to you, because we know you struggle with simple things, like reading, writing and basic addition, but that's besides the point. We want you to know, we don't support you, hell, we barely tolerate you at times. I'd mind you less if you'd stop wasting our oxygen, and valuable resources on your stupid insignificant life. Do the world a favour and jump off a bridge.

Cyberbullying may be punished with five years of community service, and every text message deemed to be threatening to the victim adds one extra year to community service. Over 50 of said messages will result in a year's time in jail. But will revert the community service time back to five years.

Intentional sale of products extremely out of its ordinary price range, while polishing worn-out products to re-fashion it as "brand new".

Guy who will most definitely ignore your signatures.

If someone were to recover a true and honest copy of The Excision Forecoming and try to burn it the crowd would probably tear the offender to pieces- that is before the police arrives which can and will torture him further. This book has been lost for three millennia what did you expect?

Not a crime since curfews are not ever legally imposed (more so due to inability to enforce a curfew nationwide than never having a reason to do so).

Unauthorized use of the internet. Three weeks in a re-education camp. More may be needed if too far gone. If prisoner is deemed "un-programmable" they are sent off to a penal colony or penal battalion depending on the severity of their dissent.
