That song is pretty recognisable for me. ☐

Not really the best song of his, but it's pretty hard to skip on vinyl ☐

Footpath Café, Maynard Ferguson.

Super swingin' tune on an album of the same name. Really hard big band blues, and damn can the Maynard Ferguson band swing. Maynard's crazy power behind the trumpet is fun to listen to, even if his tone is pretty hilarious. He's a good player despite what some jazz snobs say. Yeah, he had his 80's phase, but he definitely gets back to down-to-earth tunes in this live album.

Gargoyles, angels of darkness by Rhapsody of Fire currently. Also, here's a playlist of some of my favorite songs that are fucking long. Feel free to find your faves. It has metal and other music as well in it.
