The latter I really don't see posted much.

The former more so.

Since you aren't really a big fan of metal, I'm kind of surprised that one of the metal albums you like is an album from Electric Wizard, to be honest. Even I, who listens to more metal than you seem to usually listen to, has to get used to the harsher vocal style of Electric Wizard because I haven't gotten used to the harsher vocals very much yet.

Nothing wrong with it though, just a bit surprised.

Hmm, I'm trying to think if there's ANY country I like. I like a Johnny Cash song but it is a newer Johnny Cash song and I'm not really sure it would be considered country still.

I've never heard a Johnny Cash song I didn't consider country... even his Nine Inch Nails cover song is pretty countrified (but awesome).

Awolnation (especially that song) is fairly good, too.

Older songs you might like are Fulsom Prison Blues (WAY country), Ring Of Fire (countryish still, but with a strong mariachi-band influence), and A Boy Named Sue (once again, a very VERY country song, but hilarious). Those were all big hits for Johnny Cash in the '50s and '60s when he was first starting out.

I've not heard any other Awolnation songs yet, but I get Sail on Pandora sometimes and I really like it.
