News: Days after the coronation of Queen Rose I, fifteen Senators have mysteriously vanished after returning to the Capital from a conference in Christine City. Among them is Phillip "Fighting Phil" Paddock, the Chairman of the Senate Intelligence Committee, who at 98 is the eldest member of the current Senate. President Hinterland issued a short statement of support, joined by Her Majesty the Queen, as the government has executed a number of orders to prioritize the search for the Senators.

They're located within a temperate climate and preserve extensive swaths of natural geography, including woodlands and valleys. They possibly hold dear their national parks and preserved nature.

They hold many sites of cultural importance, primarily renaissance-era castles and intricately decorated cathedrals suggesting a devout, cultured populace. The presence of a trash can and visitors' information board suggests this is a tourist location, further reinforcing the idea that the Thedish Britons prioritise their cultural sites, for education and entertainment alike.
