I think I've listened to too much post-rock and I need something else right now....I mean these bands vary a lot that I've been listening to but I need something else right now.

Hanzel und Gretyl - Third Reich from the Sun

The only industrial I've really heard beyond maybe a few songs by bands here and there is Nine Inch Nails The Downward Spiral, and one Godflesh song (Industrial Metal), but I'll give it a try.

I actually plan to do just that at some point. They seem vaguely interesting to me from what I've briefly heard related to the Alan Wake game.

YouTube: This video was flagged for inappropriate content. You sure you want to proceed?

I'M AN ADULT NOW, YOUTUBE! YOU DON'T EVEN NEED TO ASK DAMNIT! I thought you were stupid enough for being like "You have to be 18 to watch this" for rated M for mature video games despite the trailer had stuff in it I could watch when I was 13 with no problems.

Anyway, interesting song.

Tom Waits-Hold On

He has a lot of big albums. Like, multiple albums with 16 songs in them, and not technically short songs in them either.
