Fever Ray-Mercy Street

I think as I listen to albums from previous years on repeat, I'm going to rate them and add them to lists of Favorite Albums of (Insert Year Here), and Favorite Albums of All Time.

Hmm...Don't really feel like going through new music right now.

Woodkid-The Golden Age

Instead, I'm going to work on finalizing my opinions on some albums.

Paradise Lost - "Breeding Fear"

Wow, I'm liking this album a lot more than I expected to. Damn good death/doom metal.

Birdy-Wings

Why do I always find myself listening to this song like 10 times every time I listen to it? I wouldn't even consider it to be an amazing song but I always listen to it on repeat when I do listen to it...

One of my favorite songs by her, though.

I think part of it is that I can sing along to it better than a lot of songs, for some reason, despite the fact I'm a guy and the singers a girl. Though there are some others I've surprised myself with how well I sing along to (Meaning still pretty iffy, but eh).

Sorry

Darkthrone - "The Pagan Winter"

From Birdy to Darkthrone. Quite a dramatic shift in mood.

By the way, any time my sentence has an ! at the end, it usually means I'm being sarcastic

And I'm the one who has a crush on Birdy so I should be the one blushing....

You came from death metal to Birdy, then to that, too

Birdy-Wings

...I feel stupid typing this over and over again.

Hey, Birdy is cute

And yeah, that's what happens when I put my iPod on shuffle.

The other day I got the impression that Birdy was this shy, quiet person based off of her appearance alone, and to take care of my curiosity I watched an interview with her and she was a quiet, shy person...Apparently I'm learning to decipher peoples personalities off of their appearance...

Wait, were you the one that got me into her in the first place? Someone in one of these threads sent Birdy my way once I think and I listened to her cover of Skinny Love (what was sent my way), thought it was decent, and many months later finally listened to her...
