I can already see where this album is going: Game is going to deliver one of his best performances in a while, perhaps ever (he's really killing his verses), but the album is gonna be dragged down by unoriginal production a mediocre features.

Lol, I'm fine. I just like expressing emotions/feelings through music.

For some reason I'm curious what you would think about this, Ancient Magmia.

I swear this band has like 4 different singers on this album. I don't remember this guy in this song being anywhere else on the album.

Man Next Door - Massive Attack

Whatever this is considered, it's dope as hell.
Almost sounds like a blend of rock, reggae/dub, and hip hop...

I think they get considered trip hip Shrug.

I'd recommend the whole album, but just to let you know, that song is pretty different from a lot of the stuff on the album.

Edit: RYM says trip hop, downtempo, and dub.

Sounds about right.
Definitely something I'm going to check out, thanks.
