Monkey 196 vandalised a church by spray-painting the Flying Spaghetti Monster onto the stained glass.

In a twist of irony, he choked on his carbonara later that night.

Monkey 195 was a Spanish man under the rule of Francisco Franco and, after reading the above post, decided he wasn't quite fond of carbonara. However, when he tried to express his hatred for carabonara, he accidentally said carabinieri, and was attacked by the Spanish police. He fled to Italy and this time made sure not to make the same mistake.

"I hate carabonara." Declared the ape. He was immediately met with the gazes of furious Italians who soon tied him up and set him to fire.

"NEVER insulta our pasta-a, you Spaniarda!" Was the last thing Monkey 195 ever heard.

The monkey that was numbered 191 had been killed by a user on a forum on a website designed for players to answer issues and create nations that comes from an Australian author named Max Barry's book titled "Jennifer's Government." The monkey was killed in a way that the user seemed fit. The cause of death for this monkey was that it was shot at point blank with a Russian Soviet-era AK-47 fully-automatic assault rifle.

Out of thread: No, they were never skipped. Someone accidentally went back and we had to accommodate for it and restore order, so none were skipped.

In thread: Monkey 183 died of pure, concentrated cringe as well as AUs doubleposting and threadspeeding
