Currently, the tallest building in the Tropical Isles is The Pearl in the city of Shadowville, at 310 floors tall. However, it may soon be surpassed by Elite Tower in the same city. It is planned to have 315 floors, but it is currently under construction and only 304 of them have been built.

The radio station is operated by an omnipotent eldritch deity who goes by "DJ Doug" and lives in a pocket dimension. He was preceded by Reginald Crowley (makes me wonder who that could've been, not everyone gets their job as a radio station operator succeeded by a Lovecraftian god), and has a doctorate in musicology.

On February 4th, 2023, due to a fear of climate change, a lower standard of living and recession riots broke out across the US. These riots eventually spread to Canada. Once the police attempted to restore order and the government refused to give in these rioters took up arms....oh bother.

When it comes to the mainland their monarch has absolute political power while overseas the government is more local with semi-functional republic style systems. Either way the king can still make decisions overseas with no resistance.

There is a surprising amount of consistency in spelling "united" as "uited". At first I thought it was just a one-off thing because there was a typo while entering the nation's name, but it's spelled like that throughout the factbook. Also, nobody seems to know the Queen's birthday, but when they celebrate it on some random day that varies each year, they practically worship her for her beauty.

I'm still a little bit perplexed as to why a pan-African nationalist state where white people are second-class citizens has a white queen, especially one who is so highly celebrated and admired.

Because white are not second class citizens

(also white females are not subjected to the Anti European laws due to their lack of rights during the colonial period.)

You're mistaken. The Church, which isn't established, is a tool for the civil service of the State.

Your State has some social attitudes which I'll describe politely as unintelligent or overlenient.

Native Representation discriminates against fully integrated individuals who have held citizenship for almost all of their lives, who are as patriotic as native born citizens and want to represent their nation in public office.

Euthanasia is not a right, it's an outrageous solution for the selfish and the weak to avoid pain and inconvenience.

Cannabis must never be legalised; where it has been legalised indicates a surrender to the problems that it causes. It's a vice which progressively destroys the brain, which destroys the capacity for rationality, which damages social relations, which causes misery, pain and death.
