Despite owning a large empire, they don't tend to have direct control over their nation. They instead have conglomerates, which I'll assume are their version of governors, who serve under the emperor.

Paul Keating, former Australian Prime Minister, is their Chancellor of the Treasury as well as Minister of Bananas, Engles Island, and "doing you slowly." With that face I'm not really surprised.

The Daqin Republic was very similar state analogous to the Roman Republic, reflected in its flag where there's the Sinian version of "SPQR" and a flower-like emblem, all with the same colors.

While Kronova's constitution guarantees the freedom to practice any religion, it also bans any form of organized hierarchy in religion. This policy is due to the centuries of oppression the Chalian Outremer Kingdoms placed on the Kronovan people, attempting to force converts to their faith. According to current political wisdom, hierarchical religious organizations like the Chalian Church are designed to keep their worshipers oppressed. However, as around 0.4% of the population follows the Chalian faith, not an insignificant number, the Kronovan government worked out a deal with the church.
