England, Malaysia, and Netherland threaten war with Siam if the latter continues building a canal that would cut movement through the Straits of Malacca

Better idea: let 'em build it, invade once it's done, occupy the canal zone, and profit from the tolls paid by ships dumb enough not to just go around.

U.S.S. UNITED STATES (CVA-58)
"GONE, BUT NOT FORGOTTEN"

Intended as the first of a new class of "supercarriers" for the United States Navy under the administration of President Harry S. Truman. Her design was notorious for lacking an island superstructure and its unconventional deck layout, which would not be seen in the succeeding Forrestal-class.

In 1949, only five days after United States' keel was laid down, she was cancelled by Secretary of Defense Louis A. Johnson as part of a campaign to cut down the naval budget and advance the development of airborne nuclear deterrence via long-range bombers.

Speaking of unification, maybe Simonia could get the Ekk Simonian rebels to come back. At first I thought they just wanted their own country, but turns out they're now our enemies!
