No punishment. It's an evil tragedy, yes, but it's just the news, regardless of where it came from.

Hit-and-run car attack on a fugitive-criminal driver without a license?

Murder. 15 years.

Being the leader of organized crime, with dozens of murders to your name and thousand carries out by your goons. The number of scams you have run is immeasurable, as is how many units you've laundered. Also, systemic rape and pedophilia.

Not a crime unless there is motive and opportunity. If that is proven by a grand jury and in trial, then conspiracy to commit murder. 15-20 years hard labor. If not proven, given mental and emotional evaluation. If proven to be a danger to oneself or others, locked away until condition improves. If somehow found to be neither criminally, mentally, or emotionally insane, chastised and fined up to six months pay for being a public nuisance.

Singing anti-religious songs near a church, synagogue, mosque or your nation's equivalent?

Not a crime in and of itself, it might be seen as incitement if, for example, it's done right in front of a crowded mosque or a church. In which case up to 24 hours in jail and $500 in fines

Nothing. All drugs are decriminalized, but we do run a campaign of "addiction is hard" when it comes to them.

Nothing, although you have to pay back your neighbor or we won't help you if they come for you. It's happened before. The guy was broke and the end result was even more broken.
