In the 60s, Man succeeds in undermining America in the Alaskan Missile Crisis, and manages to gain the support of Venezuela, Argentina and Cuba, which would prove valuable in the coming decades. By the 70s, Tuva had united Oceania and South America against the USA, as the American economy began to collapse entering the 80s.

Note: I'm assuming that the recession was in the 50s.

Both America and Tannu Tuva are collapsing. Man decides to reform, and makes a federation of states, each with equal authority, stabilising it. America has less luck, and it has collapsed by 1993, with a civil war that would last until the present day. Tannu Tuva is the sole global superpower.

Man wakes up from the dream about waking up from the dream of the reality of him ruling the sole superpower, but the leader of the world is by now too old. The year is now 1997, and he has died at the age of 101. The Tuvan Empire quickly has a succession crisis, and the world is plunged into chaos once more. But Tannu Tuva has had its first taste of power, and only one thing is certain - as Tuva still owns Russia, this will not be its last taste of power. New Man.

Man sticks his other hand in the water and takes it out after a few seconds. Man then puts one hand in hot water and the other in cold water. It feels the same, and it's so weird he immediately falls into a coma.
