It is 540 BCE, Cyrene is just one single 15 hectare Greek/Hellenic city. But it is also the only city in Cyrenia (and Libya). Hence the rulers of Cyrene claim to be rulers of the entire Africa East of Egypt and west of Carthage. It is the most isolated Civilized settlement in the world, yet it has managed to flourish well through trade and learning with the Hellenic world.

The heathens finally defeated, Christendom would eventually solidify its control over the whole of the Levant. Frankish territories in Eastern Europe and the Crusader States of the Holy Land were merged into a reborn Roman Empire that stretched from Epirus to Cyrene. The ancient empire continues to exist in the modern age as a center of Christian zealotry as well as pilgrimage. Led by the mighty Roman Emperor, and ever adherent to the Catholic Church, the Empire resolutely preserves its traditions and faith within an age of apostasy.
