They're quite vocal and aggressive bunch of people. Often eagerly participating in protests, riots, and drag racing. Even the most cruel, determined, and harden authorities find them to be nigh ungovernable. Baseball bats, firearms, and battle flags are a common sight throughout the nation.

Dunferm is quite an old nation, with many of their old buildings having been around since the Victorian Era.

We are the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics but in an alternate dimension. In our dimension, the Cold War is still going on and we've reformed our government similar to how China did, though we still kept the command economy.

NS-Stats are not officially used in RP, though I do tend to look after them just for fun.

Please know that my nation does NOT reflect my ideals, I am not a communist in real life, I just like history.

Dunferm has a monarchy system similar to that of England. There are many preserved historical castles scattered throughout the lands. The ancient architecture of Albion mixed with modernized technology is common in Dunferm.

That they're a very old nation that has preserved many, if not all, of their towns and cities exactly as they were hundreds of years ago, only modernising them to the extent where they can function as modern cities without losing their appearance.

Actually Stalin's portrait was on the top of the castle wall yet NS banner sizing limits cut it off.
