Parliamentary Constitutional Monarchy. Unitary government but with a lot of powers devolved to local governments.

I think a system very, very similar to Scotland, if not identical. ☐
So, like, a constitutional and parliamentary monarchy of some sort?

A kingdom or simple parliamentary republic.

Consciously choosing not to protest injustice, especially when you have no forced reason to recuse such protest, is very nearly as bad as being the one to cheer the injustice or carry it out.

What is it that draws me to this game over and over when I have far more productive activities on hold?
