That's like the only Boards of Canada song I know very well. They took off a ton of Boards of Canada's stuff off of Spotify for whatever reason. They took off one of the Porcupine Tree albums too. I don't really understand the reasoning behind that.

That sucks, and yeah that makes like zero sense. :/

I'll add them as one of the bands I need to search on YouTube instead of Spotify. Just....YouTube's so much slower.

we, unlike the bourgeoisie, have nothing to lose and therefore our expression will be the only honest one, our words will be the only challenging ones and our art will be the one revolutionary expression. We need new noise and new voices and new canvases to become something more than the last poets of a useless generation.

everyone knows that quote, "I know not what weapons World War Three will be fought, but World War Four will be fought with sticks and stones," but in a way it's optimistic and inspiring because it suggests that even after destroying civilization and returning to the stone age we'll still be sufficiently globalized and bellicose to have another world war right then and there
