They have a population of 126,168,156 people. Exact. 60% of which live in urban areas.

There military is a Death Krieg rip-off.

Rapture City

- In the underwater city, two roles have emerged from the City's ongoing civil war: the City Monitors who defend the peace and the Red Caps who fight against unjust systems. The city's infrastructure is crumbling under its own weight and kinship is snuffed by the paranoia of totalitarianism. Yet the people would be in for a surprise as their virtual overlord have died many years ago as the oppression continues under his name...
- Not an 1-1 exact replica of Bioshock lore and Rapture City. Only the city's atmosphere and setting is maintained.

Never heard of that until now. But the military isn't full of former traitors and fanatical fighting isn't exactly uncommon among nations.

Their version of Christianity seems radically different from everyone else's interpretation, with them instead viewing Jesus Christ as "Christ the Scientist", who supposedly engineered special devices in an attempt to establish the first post-scarcity civilisation in history.

Unlike what the name suggests, Occitania spans far beyond the borders of the historical state, controlling the entirety of France, Northern Italy and the historical Iberian crown of Aragon.

The North German Realm is divided into numerous Kingdoms, Grand Duchies, Duchies, Principalities, Free States, Independent Cities, and Free Regions. This structure seems to echo the Holy Roman Empire's, in a few small ways.

The legislature is divided into the House of Representatives (1000 seats) and the Senate (250 seats).

The leading political parties are the Liga Liberala and Aliança Democrata, and the main opposition party is the Partit Socialdemocrata.

They attempted to argue why a tyrannical despot is good thing, without much success to outsiders' changing their minds without the barrel of a gun.

The Dutch in their timeline played the role the British did in our own in North America, absorbing the colonies of neighboring European nations.

Kronova is a democratic socialist country with a well-developed information technology sector. The native Chiloquin arrived in the icy tundra via a land bridge during the Ice Age. Then the Kovac settled the area. More arrived as they were escaping from persecution by the Chalarian Empire in their homeland. The Chaliens attempted crusades in the area, which resulted in a stalemate for several hundred years. Then there was a revolution that formed the modern republican government.

They're basically mirror universe Japan. An well-developed island nation in East Asia that managed to avoid the western colonial subjugation befell other Asian nations. However, unlike Japan, they became fully Democratic after their version of the Meiji Restoration and allied with Korea against Russia and joined the Allies in both world wars.
