How evil is Stura? Based on their flag, 5/10.I've got virtually no clue what that thing is(all I can tell is that it's the mesosphere or something)but it looks as if it is shredded or something although the colour scheme does somewhat mitigates this.

Looks like a nice nation, but a superpower, and to me, superpowers are all bad or good in their own ways.

Depends on whether or not you think the pirates of the Age of Sail were dangerous mass murdering terrorists or brave freedom fighters against the tyranny of mercantile imperial economies.

For the former option, 11/10.

For the latter, 3/10.

It's a bad nation, but compared to me, it is like a pebble compared to our planet.

8/10 to 2/10 depending on viewpoint.

I'm not entirely sure if you got that impression from my flag or from elsewhere but if its the latter, then, contrary to what NS influence stats may say, we're not really a superpower though, especially since the balance of power is pretty much divided divided equally between our planet's nations, us included(OOC:besides, I only got that because I founded a region).

How evil is Novos Romanos? Based on their flag, 7/10 while the colour scheme, by itself, gives off the impression of peace and democracy, the rest of the design, especially the iron cross, doesn't and gives off fascist connotations.

I'm like 50% sure that's a fascist symbol, but your color scheme says otherwise...half of 50% = 2.5/10

It was used by occultist Nazis (essentially the occultist circle around Heinrich Himmler), although the symbol is older, being used by Bronze Age peoples with a completely different meaning from the one given by the Nazis; it was just a variant of the running sun, sol invictus, or sun cross.
