Onyx Tower theme - I don't know if the track has an official name. It's just the music that plays repeatedly during your hero's siege on a magnificent tower in the video game Baldur's Gate: Dark Alliance.

A band I was surprised grew on me. Think I like them for their quirkiness. Some of their songs still don't really grab me, though.

"I like my coffee black, just like my metal!"

65daysofstatic-The Fall of Math (65daysofstatic Remix)

Strange when a band remixes their own song.

"We Weren't Angels" by... well, I'm afraid I don't know. The artist is affiliated with Blizzard Entertainment though.

Also, this is an Official Soundtrack from the PC video game Starcraft II : Wings Of Liberty.

"Pork Parts" - An Official Soundtrack for the game Age Of Empires II. Haven't played any versions of this game for a long while, so I'm not sure whether this track plays in both AOE 2 and it's expansion pack, which is apparently known as "The Conquerors." Still though, this is the theme I think of most whenever I see or hear those three words in chronological order.

Alternatively, I also tend to think of the idea of converting an opponent's structure to my side by ordering a priest to... well, preach sermons to it.

"Bowser's Road" or Road To Bowser, I don't know for certain.

I have never played Super Mario Galaxy, but it's stroked my interest long enough that I'd like to play it once, at least.
