So constructive homicide, killing as part of a robbery? That would also be death.

Practising medicine, reasonably competently, without a licence.

This nation reflects some of my RL views, but with everything taken to the extreme.

Arstotskiano: Unauthorized movement outside of the nation's borders is considered treason and will result in life imprisonment or death, with the addition of the loss of citizenship. If you damage public property in the process, that is an extra 10 years of prison, though that likely won't really matter.

Kaywell: Possession of illegal weaponry is a minimum of 25 years in prison, and varies on the specific weapon. You would also be barred from serving in enforcement. Use of an illegal weapon on a citizen is usually also a crime, but this could possibly be negated in this scenario since the victim is a criminal. If the criminal committed a crime considered more severe, the assault charge would be dropped.

There aren't a lot of mandatory services in Tangatarehua. Dodging jury service would get you a K20,000 (NSD$1,000) fine; dodging court ordered community service would result in a harsher punishment such as six months in jail and dodging compulsory community service in school would mean you cannot graduate from high school, attend university and in most cases get a job or government benefits.

(And of course there is absolutely no military service.)

Before 2022 this would not have been a crime.

However following the invasion of Ukraine, the studio would be fined somewhere between a minimum of K20,000,000 (NSD$1,000,000) and a maximum of 5% of worldwide profits for doing business with Russians, as this would be a violation of sanctions against the country.

Speaking of which: Violating government sanctions against a rogue or hostile nation?

Fine in an amount that will be the double of any profit made on that transaction.

In addition, if it is a foreign company, it will lose its license to operate in any Merullean territory for 1 year.

Although, if it is a Merullean company, the CEO (or whoever is responsible for the transaction) can be sentenced for 2 years in jail, no parole or bail.

Violent protesting is not a crime. However, making racist remarks about any race is a crime and will get you 3 days in jail with 0.5% net worth bail.

While if you do it legally and safely (We sell whiskey and other brewing kits at specialist stores) there is no punishment. However if you do it recklessly or dangerously with harmful yields you would be arrested and sentenced to a maximum of 5 years in prison with a 5000 florin fine and a minimum of a week under surveillance or under house arrest
