Mogwai-Remurdered

Definitely looking forward to this. With so many damn bands I like now, I swear there's always a band popping up for me to look forward to their new album. I couldn't really think of anything specific I was looking forward to in 2014, but there's definitely this, and likely the new Radiohead album (If they're actually recording the new album this fall). And something else will probably pop up soon.

Their new album is the best thrash record in a while. I'd say it matches Reign in Blood.

Jesu-Everyday I Get Closer to the Light from Which I Came

I think this is the longest song name in Jesu history.

He mostly has short song names. The Playgrounds Are Empty was the previous longest I think. I know a lot of bands with massively long song names.

Pelican-Terminal

Time to get all the albums of 2013 I'm behind on listening to done with!

Well, the ones I care about/vaguely care about, anyway, and know the best. There's probably a ton of others I could go through and enjoy, too, that I don't really know anything about.
