On an unrelated note: I think we can all agree that Devin Townsend is sexy and good-looking. Strapping Young Lad really had an impact on me!

I think he looks really awesome, if that counts.

I love how each album seems to be definitely noticeably different then each other. This one seems more...I dunno. I enjoy it, though. But I can definitely tell it is a fair amount different then the other stuff I've heard. Which is a great thing. The best bands/artists are the ones that change.

After this album, I'll start choosing where to go at random or something.

Nice! I would recommend you start the Devin Townsend Project albums but, obviously, it's your choice and stuff.

Think I might do just that.

And geez, I went through 4 Radiohead albums in between my Devin Townsend listening, along with not doing much for 2 to 3 days because I was busy in real life....Yup, music lover right here.

Dynamite Headdy - You're Izayoi

Izayoi is a lady wearing a kimono who turns into an evil robot in the Japanese version, and was cut from the US version in favor of a less demented toy robot.

Also known as Hexidecimark.

I've listened to a huge chunk of this album and have quite enjoyed it, but I still haven't listened to the whole thing.

This is one of the bands that has helped me evolve my tolerance for harsher vocals more. Or, a certain style of vocals, anyway.
