Man gets imprisoned, but Mina breaks him out, saying to the officers: "The world is ending, there's no time left for prison sentences." The officers' tasers and weapons don't do much to Mina herself, and they both escape. Man wakes up back at his house, and departs for his job.

Day 2 of 573, 5:45
Distance from sun: 149,471,000 km
Average temperature: 16.1°C

Meanwhile, Erin's team finds more robots to eliminate in Iyuki.

This weird phenomenon also gets reversed by Mina, turning Man back to normal. By 11:00 Man and Mina arrive at a car dealer shop, and buy a new car. Man then drives to work with Mina, getting there successfully.

This was actually a hallucination by Man due to his brain injuries caused by the car crash.

Man hallucinated Mina, her protection and turning into a stick.

Man gets rushed to hospital where doctors operate on him but it's too late and he dies from his car crash injuries.

Man has lunch at his house. So far, not much has changed, even though scientific outlets show the impending end of the world. (For now, this is the only thing that will eventually kill Mina for certain, unless she leaves the planet. Erin and her group's final objective is to prevent this.

tutto è possibile, Entro i nostri limiti

In Italian it means

Anything is possible, within our limitations

Or at least i hope that's what it means since these days you can't trust google translate. For all I know I could be saying "Your mother was a hamster and your father smelt of elderberries!" PS: If you get that reference then you are very cultured.
